

How Can You Support Your Library?

Monetary Gift

Talcott Free Library accepts monetary donations to help support the growth of the library. Monetary donations of any size are accepted. This support helps Talcott build their collections, provide programs and improve technology.

Volunteer Opportunities

Many volunteer opportunities are available at the library. Volunteers are used in various areas. Whether you like to work with children, help keep the book shelves organized, assist with desk work, we can find the right volunteer option for you. Hours are flexible. Stop by or call the library for more information.

Adopt-A-Book

In December, Talcott Free Library offers an opportunity for patrons and the community to Adopt -A-Book. You can stop by the library and select your book from the selection provided. Talcott will than bookplate it with your name or a name of a loved one or honored party. You will receive a gift acknowledgement to take with you. It's a great way to memorialize a beloved friend or relative, or a special gift at the holiday season. Your gift is tax deductible as allowed by law.

Used Book Donations

The library accepts gently used fiction or nonfiction books, DVDs and videos that are used for the library collection or for used book sales. Donations are tax deductible. We do not accept encyclopedias, household goods, toys, or other items not appropriate for the book sales.

Don't forget to shop the Friends of the Talcott Library used book sales twice a year!
